A PRACTICAL EXPERIMENT.

A Certain Warehouseman being in doubt as to how and where to have his circulars addressed, wrote to six different firms asking them to refer him to the right quarter. Imagine his surprise, on opening their replies, to find that two of them recommended Wilson's Company, 83 Jamaica Street, and four of them added a special recommendation; two for promptitude and accuracy, one for speed, and one "for the remarkable way in which they interpret your instructions, and carry them out to the very letter, no matter how complicated." Surely this speaks for itself.

THE following paragraphs are copied from a work recently published in London, entitled "GLASGOW OF TO-DAY: Historical, Statistical, and Biographical."

. . . "A HOUSE OF GREAT CELEBRITY IN ITS LINE IS THAT OF Mr. Alexander Riley, Merchant Tailor, Shirt Manufacturer, Hosier, Glover, and Foreign Outfitter, 42 Gordon Street. . . .

"This house was founded in 1868, and removed to the present address from Argyle Street, in 1886. The premises now occupied consist of a handsome shop comprising showrooms and well-appointed and spacious workrooms. The whole depôt has a fine street frontage. The total staff employed in all the departments numbers about forty hands. The stock, which is very large, is composed entirely of gentlemen's clothing, dress shirts, and hosiery of the very best and finest quality. In the former department the leading specialities are trousers, business suits, dress suits, and overcoats; in the latter 'hygienic hosiery.' All the hygienic goods are made specially for this house in the well-known town of Hawick. . . .

"Mr. Riley manufactures the 'Corona' shirt, which is pronounced by competent authorities to be the latest and most perfect form of dress shirt. . . .

"This house took the lead some years ago in bringing about the cash system for high-class clothing, which it has steadily maintained ever since. The trade extends all over Glasgow and the surrounding districts, and is particularly well established among the aristocracy and the upper strata of society generally. It is well known among his patrons that whatever Mr. Riley undertakes will be done well, and his prestige in the commercial world at large is such as entitles him to the respect of all his trade colleagues in the city."

The presenting of Addresses to deserving individuals by their fellow citizens, in recognition of distinguished services, professional merit, or on the occurrence of important eras in the lives of the recipients, has become an established and popular mode of expressing such sentiments. Recognizing the importance of such documents, it would at same time seem natural and becoming that these should receive all the attention which the arts of Caligraphy and Illumination can give in making them worthy and beautiful objects for reference and preservation.

PREFACE.

THE Publishers of the Glasgow Post-Office Directory beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of sixty-three years. It has ever been their desire that the information it contained should keep pace with the progress and general requirements of the Second City of the Empire, and every effort has been made to render it as accurate and complete as possible.

At the beginning of the book will be found a Map of the Environs of Glasgow, the Almanac, Tide Tables, Phases of the Moon, &c. The City Chamberlain and Mr. Henry, the City Assessor, have kindly supplied Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs (see page 31), as ascertained by the Census taken on 5th April, 1891, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1890–91, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1891. At pages 74 to 97 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number at the end its registration district. In the large Map, from actual survey by J. Bartholomew, Esq., Edinburgh, great care as usual has been taken in showing the various new streets that have been formed since last issue. Rutherglen, Burnside, Cathkin Park and Braes, Cathcart (Old and New), and Pollokshaws, are now also included, and the various underground railway stations are marked by an asterisk. The Map is placed at the end of the volume, so that it may lie open without interfering with the turning over of the pages.

In the Street Directory the number affixed to the name of each Street indicates the Municipal Ward in which it is placed for Electoral purposes. In order to make the work as largely available as possible the various Suburban Districts around the City are given, together with the members of Parliament for the Burgh or Division in which they are placed, viz.:—Bearsden, Bishopbriggs, Bothwell, Cambuslang, Cathcart, Lenzie, Maryhill, Millerston, Milngavie, Pollokshaws, Rutherglen, Shettleston, Tollcross, and Uddingston, and will be found following the City Directory proper. The population of these places as taken at the Census of 1891, is also shown, as far as could be ascertained at the date of going to press. The other suburban districts are now incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding Postal and Telegraph arrangements, together with Local and General Intelligence; and the Publishers beg to thank the gentlemen connected with the various Institutions for their kindness in supplying much useful information.

The printing has been done, as usual, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

GUARANTEES AGAINST FRAUD AND EMBEZZLEMENT.

Employers can receive absolute security for any loss they may sustain through the dishonesty of their Employés.

Every proposal is considered by the Directors on its own merits, and the previous character, length of service, and personal circumstances of the Proposer, together with the nature of the check employed, are regarded in determining the premium required.

INVESTMENT GUARANTEE DEPARTMENT.

The Debenture Bonds of first-class Trading, Industrial and other Companies, and the Deposit accounts of successful Colonial and Foreign Banks have long been regarded as occupying a leading position among sound investments.

It frequently happens, however, that Investments of this class are depreciated by reason of circumstances which it is beyond the power of the most careful and experienced Investor to foresee.

The Directors of this Company are prepared to consider proposals from individual Investors, or from Companies, for guaranteeing the principal and interest of Funds invested in these Debentures and Bank Deposits.

The rate of premium is based upon the nature of the investment as well as upon the security it offers, and will vary from 2/6 to 10/- per cent.

Proposal Forms may be obtained on application.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, and 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103), with the Duty on Policies of Sea Insurance, Letters Patent, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98, Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties.

The Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97, came into operation on 1st January, 1871, and by § 3 the exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved.

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

1. The general deed duty, or duty on a deed, not otherwise charged, is reduced to 10s.

2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.

3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—(§ 72.)

4. An agreement for a lease for a term not exceeding thirty-five years is to be charged with the lease duty.—(§ 96.)

5. An instrument chargeable as a lease in consideration, in whole or in part, of produce or other goods—

Where it is stipulated that the value shall amount to or not exceed a given sum, ad valorem lease duty on such sum.

A statement in the lease in regard to the value of such produce or goods to be conclusive as to stamp duty, unless and until shown to be incorrect.—(§ 97.)

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.

7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s., is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—(§ 4.)

8. Instruments relating to the property of the crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision is made to the contrary.—(§ 5.)

9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2).

10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2).

11. An appropriate stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 9 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 9 (2).

12. All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, penalty on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—(§ 10.)

13. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of money in foreign or colonial currency, the duty to be calculated on the value in British currency, according to the current rate of exchange at the date of the instrument.—(§ 11.)

15. If the instrument contains a statement of the current rate of exchange, or average price, and is stamped accordingly, it is to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that the instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—(§ 13.)

16. The duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, and to instruments wheresoever executed, relating to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—(§ 17.)

17. No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good, useful, or available in law or equity, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—(§ 17.)

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—All personal property (heritable securities are personal property) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and personal bonds excluding executors—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, &c.; and 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.—(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country.—See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson & Welsby, 171.

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.—When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

ABSTRACT OF THE RATES OF INVENTORY DUTY.

She is now up and at her work, and feels not the slightest pain or stiffness. It is now eighteen months since she had to leave her work, six months of which she never left her bed. We never expected to see her walk again. Accept our sincerest thanks.
F—— H——."

Chas. P. Watson, Esq., Advertising Agent, St Vincent Street. GLASGOW, 6th May, 1887.

Dear Sir, I have received your letter of the 5th inst., and I am pleased to see that you have been successful in getting rate of . . . cut down a little. This is satisfactory. With reference to the contract for English and Scotch country papers which expires on the 19th curt., you will please renew the same on similar terms to the contract now expiring. If you continue executing my orders as you have hitherto done, you can rest assured of getting all my business to do. I may state I have had to drop several Advertising Agents for their non-attention and overcharges, but so far as I have done business with you, I have to express my entire satisfaction at the manner in which you have carried it through.—I am, yours truly, (Signed) THOMAS J. LIPTON.

Dear Sir,—We are much pleased with the expeditious and complete manner in which you have carried out our instructions for advertising our Central Business, as well as our numerous Branch Eslablishments throughout Scotland. The whole work has been skilfully carried out in every detail to our entire satisfaction, and the great amount of labour you have taken off our shoulders would have, in itself proved a boon sufficient to induce us to continue sending our Advertisements through you, without taking into consideration the great saving in rates you have managed to secure for us. We have the fullest confidence in your system of checking all Advertisements.—Faithfully yours. (Signed) WALTER WILSON & CO.
